Las Vegas' T-Mobile Arena Slated to Host Event for the First Time

Las Vegas, Nevada – The Jordan Brand Classic, now in its 18th year, will host the greatest male and female high school basketball players as they look to own the game and take the big stage. JBC is a celebration of the next generation of basketball stars and features the top high school talent in the country. For the first time the brand's marquee event will be held at Las Vegas' newest sports and entertainment venue, T-Mobile Arena. The double-header will be held on Saturday, April 20 with the Girls Game tipping off at 3:00 p.m., followed by the Boys Game at 5:00 p.m. PST.

"We are constantly inspired by the next generation of elite basketball players and are excited to host the best of the best for Jordan Brand Classic. We're looking forward to treating this year's rising athletes to a whole new experience in Las Vegas." said Craig Williams, President of Jordan Brand

The Jordan Brand Classic is a unique opportunity for the best high school seniors to bond and compete, following in the footsteps of superstars like Carmelo Anthony, Anthony Davis, Kevin Durant, Blake Griffin, LeBron James and Chris Paul.
